INDIANA UTILITY
REGULATORY COMMISSION

CAUSE NO. 42596

You are hereby notified that on this date the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission has caused the following entry to be made:

On April 14, 2004, John Cook, an attorney in good standing and licensed to practice law in the State of Indiana, filed with the Commission his "Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice of David F. Boehm as Attorney for Intervenor, AK Steel Corporation," which appears in the following words and figures, to-wit:

(H.I.)

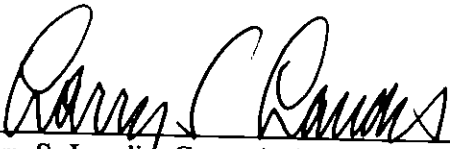

The Motion states that Mr. Boehm is a licensed attorney in good standing in Ohio, Kentucky and Pennsylvania. The Motion provides the information set forth in Section 2(a) of Rule 3 of the Indiana Rules for Admission to the Bar and Discipline of Attorneys. Finally, the Motion states that Mr. Boehm is a specialist in the field of public utility and electricity law and has represented AK Steel (whose Motion to Intervene in this Cause was also filed on April 14, 2004) before the Public Utility Commissions in Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Minnesota.

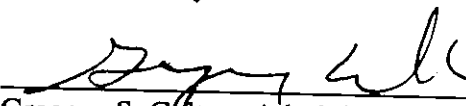

Upon reviewing the above-described Motion, the Presiding Officers find that good cause exists for allowing Mr. Boehm to enter his appearance for, and to represent, AK Steel in this proceeding. We therefore grant the Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice of David F. Boehm.

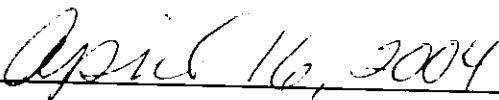

Mr. Boehm is reminded that Sections 2(b) and 2(c) of Rule 3 impose additional requirements that will require his attention.

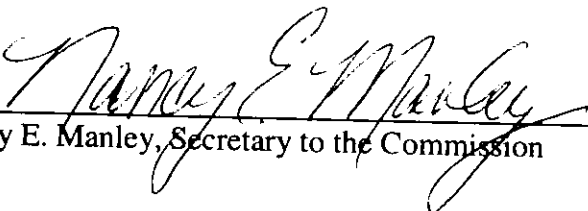

A Copy of this Docket Entry will be forwarded to the clerk of the Indiana Supreme Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Larry S. Landis, Commissioner

Gregory S. Colton, Administrative Law Judge
